

Time Was

1 Time was when the sun - down world was a bare - foot song that you 2 Time was when the am - ber street lights all hushed on as you sang on the road to home. And the smooth side - walk kind-a shiv-ered your feet, so you wan-dered in from play. And you lis-tened to the wheels of the 6 - 0 - 8 walked when you could on the rough of the street. And noth-ing in the world was pull - ing the grade and you knew you were late, so you stood for a mo-ment at your half so sweet as the song that you sang a - lone. And the own front gate and you sang you a song for the day. The Pres - i - dent com-muned with God, and par - ents all re - mained e - grass in the yard was wet and cool, the night wind brushed your face, and ter-nal-ly wed by the vows they'd said to the Lord God who knew your name.

 through the win - dow in the light, the fam - 'ly was say - ing grace.
